March 31, 2024 Resurrection Sunday

““Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen! Remember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galilee, saying, ‘The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.’” Luke 24:5b-7

At Calvary . . . with Origen (c. 185-c. 251)

“It was a surprise, even to ordinary people, that someone who was accused and attacked by false testimony refused to protect Himself. He was able to defend Himself and to show that He wasn’t guilty of any of the alleged charges. He could have listed the praiseworthy deeds of His own life and His miracles done by divine power in order to allow the judge to deliver a more honorable judgment concerning Him. But, by the nobleness of His nature, He condemned His accusers. Without hesitation, the judge would have set Him free if He had offered a defense. This is clear from his statement, ‘Which of the two do ye wish that I should release unto you, Barabbas or Jesus, who is called Christ?’ and from what the Scripture adds, ‘For he knew that for envy they had delivered Him.’ Jesus, however, is continually attacked by false witnesses and, while wickedness remains in the world, is continually exposed to accusation. Yet, even now, He remains silent in the presence of these things and makes no audible answer. Instead, He places His defense in the lives of His genuine disciples. They are an outstanding testimony, one superior to all false witness, that refutes and overthrows all unfounded accusations and charges.”

(From Day by Day with the Early Church Fathers, pg. 90)

It has been much on my mind in recent days the reality that, while God does not change, those who truly interact with Him do not, could not remain unchanged. Zacchaeus, the criminal on the cross, the centurion, Joseph of Arimathea, and Nicodemus — all encountered God in the Person of Jesus Christ and their lives were dramatically changed. May this be the testimony about God in each of our lives and the most evident confirmation that we have “been with Jesus” (Acts 4:13) and that He is indeed alive and at work.

Jesus Christ did just what He said He would do and rose from the dead — and that changed everything. Rising from the dead on the a Sunday, the day of worship for believers shifted to Sunday. Thanks be to God, He has changed and is changing me — yet He Himself does not change. You can’t fix perfect! He is risen! He is risen indeed!

“You are My witnesses,” says the Lord, “And My servant whom I have chosen, That you may know and believe Me, And understand that I am He. Before Me there was no God formed, Nor shall there be after Me.” Isaiah 43:10

Go to Dark Gethsemane (Ensemble)

Go to dark Gethsemane, you who feel the tempter's power;
Your Redeemer's conflict see, watch with Him one bitter hour;
Turn not from His griefs away, learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

Follow to the judgment hall; view the Lord of life arraigned;
O the worm-wood and the gall! O the pangs His soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss; learn of Him to bear the cross.

Calvary's mournful mountain climb; there, adoring at His feet,
Mark that miracle of time, God's own sacrifice complete;
"It is finished!" Hear Him cry; learn of Jesus Christ to die.

Amen, Amen.

Mercy Tree (Ensemble)

On a hill called Calvary stands an endless mercy tree.
Ev’ry broken weary soul, find your rest and be made whole.
Stripes of blood that stain its frame shed to wash away our shame.
From the scars, pure love released: salvation by the mercy tree.

In the sky between two thieves hung the blameless Prince of Peace,
Bruised and battered, scarred and scorned,
Sacred head pierced by our thorns.

“It is finished,” was His cry. The perfect Lamb was crucified.
His sacrifice, our victory; our Savior chose the mercy tree.
Hope went dark that violent day.
The whole earth quaked at Love’s display.
Three days silent in the ground, this body born for heaven’s crown.

On that bright and glorious day when Heaven opened up the grave:
He’s alive and risen indeed! Oh, praise Him for the mercy tree!
Death has died, love has won; hallelujah! Jesus Christ has overcome;
He has risen from the dead.

One day soon we’ll see His face; ev’ry tear, He’ll wipe away.
No more pain or suffering; praise Him for the mercy tree.
