Depth of Mercy

Depth of mercy! Can there be mercy still reserved for me?
Can my God His wrath forbear? me, the chief of sinners, spare?

I have long withstood His grace, long provoked Him to His face;
would not hearken to His calls, grieved Him by a thousand falls.

I my Master have denied; I afresh have crucified, oft profaned His hallowed name, put Him to an open shame.

There for me the Savior stands,
Shows His wounds and spreads His hands.
God is love! I know, I feel; Jesus weeps, but loves me still!

Now incline me to repent, let me now my fall lament;
now my foul revolt deplore! weep, believe, and sin no more.

At Calvary . . . connecting with our missionaries

The Missions Committee seeks to keep you informed on what is going on with our missionaries, but I hope that it goes beyond waiting for reports. We are blessed with a personable and engaging missionary family at CMC. I hope you are praying for them, and your giving to the general fund contributes to their financial support and I know many of you support different missionaries individually. I encourage you to also have contact with our missionaries on a personal level through independent communication to get to know them, let them get to know you, and build a relationship where you can enrich one another’s lives. When there is opportunity for our missionaries to be in Racine, I encourage you to make efforts to get together with them. See if they are available to go out for coffee, invite them over for dinner, offer to bring a meal by — (apparently everything involving food, judging from the suggestions I have made)! It doesn’t have to involve a meal, but the encouragement is to spend time with these dear people — especially when we have the privilege of having them around town. This will be an encouragement to them and to you. Keep in mind that they are busy and have their own schedules, but having that interest and seeking to build that relationship will be a good thing for all involved.

Thank you for your interest in, involvement with, and ministry to our missionaries!

Come and see the works of God; He is awesome in His doing toward the sons of men.
