At Calvary . . . with Pastor Davis

A few months ago, many of us spent an evening with our Awana missionary Bill Hoppe. It has been a delight to converse with him and see all the connections we have. I am thrilled to get to have an unexpected extension of our Mission Conference Sundays to have the Hoppes with us this morning and look forward to sitting under his teaching this morning. Hear him well.

You all will also have a treat in sitting under the teaching of some of your Elders in the upcoming weeks as they teach us from God’s Word. I am excited for all involved!

We are here in the midst of the summer. This can be a time of slowing down and connecting, but more often than not, it is when we are scrambling from one thing to the next frantically trying to cram all our relaxing into these summer months. It is a time we can become even more disconnected from one another, so I encourage you to slow down and look up. Recognize the folks you haven’t seen lately. Send a note or give a call. It is our tendency to get wrapped up in our own world and inadvertently cut most everyone out. Here is a reminder to give attention to caring for one another. This isn’t prompted by anything, just a public service announcement.

¹ I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called, ² with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love, ³ endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴ There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling; ⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism; ⁶ one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.
