Whiter Than Snow

Lord Jesus, I long to be perfectly whole;
I want Thee forever to live in my soul.
Break down every idol, cast out every foe—
Now wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Refrain: Whiter than snow, yes, whiter than snow—
Now wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Lord Jesus, look down from Your throne in the skies
And help me to make a complete sacrifice.
I give up myself and whatever I know—
Now wash me and I will be whiter than snow. (Refrain)

Lord Jesus, for this I most humbly entreat;
I wait, blessed Lord, at Thy crucified feet.
By faith, for my cleansing I see Your blood flow—
Now wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. (Refrain)

Lord Jesus, before You I patiently wait;
Come now, and within me a new heart create.
To those who have sought You, You never said, "No" —
Now wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. (Refrain)

7:3-5a - <sup>6</sup> And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt. <sup>4</sup> But Pharaoh will not heed you, so that I may lay My hand on Egypt and bring My armies and My people, the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. <sup>5</sup> And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord (emphasis added)

13:15a - “And it came to pass, when Pharaoh was stubborn about letting us go”

It is interesting to see the will of God and the will of man both being in action at the same time – free will and sovereignty. God has a plan that He will accomplish, but Pharaoh also operates volitionally. Both the people of God and the people of Egypt will need convincing and will both see the God of Israel revealed as the Lord. Israel will be freed from slavery and Egypt from their blind idolatry in experiencing the one, true God. (A point echoed in the Psalms reading - “Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!” - 46:10)

The following is commentary from Augustine (354–430 AD) on the conundrum with Pharaoh that has troubled so many. It resonated with me and I found it to be fascinating and helpful. I present it to you to exercise your brain muscle and trust it will be a help.

“God constantly says, ‘I will harden Pharaoh’s heart,’ and gives the reason why He does this. He says, ‘I will harden Pharaoh’s heart and fulfill my signs and My portents in Egypt,’ as if the hardening of Pharaoh’s heart were necessary so that God’s signs might be multiplied and fulfilled in Egypt. God makes good use of bad hearts for what He wishes to show to those who are good or those He is going to make good. And the quality of evil in each heart (that is, what sort of heart is disposed to evil) came about through its own evildoing, which grew from the choice of the will. Still, those evils in quality, so that the heart is moved this way or that, comes to be by causes by which the soul is driven. And whether these causes either exist or do not exist is not within the power of man. They come from the providence of God that is hidden, most just and clearly most wise, who disposes and administers the universe that He created. So that Pharaoh had such a heart, which was not moved by God’s patience to piety but rather to impiety, was the result of his own vice. But that those things happened by which his heart, so evil by its own vice, resisted God’s command—it is called ‘hardened’ because it did not bend and agree but resisted unbendingly—was of divine dispensation. It was not unjust to such a heart. It was clearly a just punishment [that] was being prepared, by which those who feared God would be corrected. . . . We should consider whether the phrase can be understood in this way: ‘I shall harden,’ as if He were saying, ‘I shall show how hard his heart is.’” (NKIV Ancient-Modern Bible - pg. 67)

At Calvary . . . with Pastor Davis

The week before last, in the section leading up to the accounting of the of the plagues on Egypt, I noticed some particular points of interest reading it through this time around:

God said,

3:19 - “I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not even by a mighty hand.”

4:21b - “But I will harden his (Pharaoh’s) heart”

6:7b - “Then you shall know that I am the Lord your God who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.” (emphasis added)
