May 31, 2026

"The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple; The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes; The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, Yea, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb."

Brethren, We Have Met to Worship (offertory)
Brethren, we have met to worship and adore the Lord, our God;
Will you pray with all your power, while we try to preach the Word?
All is vain unless the Spirit of the Holy One comes down;
Brethren, pray, and holy manna will be showered all around.

Let us love our God supremely, let us love each other too;
Let us love and pray for sinners till our God makes all things new.
Then He'll call us home to heaven, at His table, we'll sit down;
Christ will gird Himself, and serve us with sweet manna all around.
Brethren, We Have Met to Worship/George Atkins, William Moore/Public Domain

The Longer I Serve Him (Postlude)
Since I started for the Kingdom, since my life He controls,
Since I gave my heart to Jesus, the longer I serve Him,
The sweeter He grows.

Ev'ry need He is supplying, plenteous grace He bestows;
Ev'ry day my way gets brighter, the longer I serve Him,
The sweeter He grows.

At Calvary . . . with Pastor Davis

I have had our Bible reading on my mind and have enjoyed speaking about these things with others. Still, I am reminded that Bible reading is a discipline that needs to be fostered. We either grow and deepen our practice of taking in God's Word daily or else we become increasingly acclimated to going without reading our Bibles — and for not reading to be our pattern. I found these two quotes from Puritans and was encouraged and challenged by them and offer this for your consideration.

“O ye saints, how you should love the Word, for by this you have been converted. . . . Tie it about your neck, write it upon your hand, lay it in your bosom. When you go let it lead you, when you sleep let it keep you, when you wake let it talk with you (Proverbs 6:21-22). You that are unconverted, read the Word with diligence; flock to where it is powerfully preached. Pray for the coming of the Spirit in the Word. Come from your knees to the sermon, and come from the sermon to your knees.” — Joseph Alleine

“Conversion turns us to the Word of God, as our touchstone, to examine ourselves . . . as our glass, to dress by (James 1); as our rule to walk and work by (Galatians 6:16); as our water, to wash us (Psalm 119:9); as our fire to warm us (Luke 24); as our food to nourish us (Job 23:12); as our sword to fight with (Ephesians 6); as our counsellor, in all our doubts (Psalm 119:24); as our cordial, to comfort us; as our heritage to enrich us.” — Philip Henry
(The Golden Treasury of Puritan Quotations Compiled by I.D.E. Thomas pg. 32-33)

My request of you is to send me an email this week (ethandavis@cmcracine.org) with a brief note about how you go about reading your Bible. How do you make your time in the Word a pattern in your life? Is it what is playing in the car on your commute? An early morning staple or reserved for the quiet of the evening? Read as an individual or aloud with your family or spouse?

Next Sunday I would like to post your responses (anonymously) to provide ideas to your church family of what has worked well for you and be an encouragement for making our own individual reading a purposeful practice in the lives of each one of us.

Also, we have come to the end of the book of Numbers and I would be interested to hear from you on the nuggets that have been revealed.

Young and old, I look forward to hearing from you!

Princes also sit and speak against me, But Your servant meditates on Your statutes.
